

National Training Day Programme

Tuesday 23rd August 2022

Wellington Airport Conference Rooms

8.45am	Welcome
9.00 am	Introduction Dr Margaret Sage Clinical Lead, Pathology, NCSP
9.35 am	Achieving equitable outcomes in cervical screening in New Zealand Dr Dougal Thorburn Public Health Specialist, NCSP
10.00 am	Self-sampling: New horizons for primary and community health care and implications for laboratories Dr Margot McLean, Public Health Specialist, NCSP Nicolas Zacchi, Lead Molecular scientist Pathlab
10.30am	Morning tea
11.00am	What are the clinical risks of the 12 Other (non16/18) HPV types? Nicolas Zacchi, Lead Molecular scientist Pathlab
11.45am	Clinical Practice Guidelines for HPV primary screening: an overview Dr Howard Clentworth Clinical lead, Colposcopy, NCSP
12.10 am	NCSP address: Dr Jane O'Hallahan, Clinical Director National Screening Unit Nicki Martin NCSP Programme Manager
12.15pm	Lunch
1.00pm	Development of the new NCSP Register: an update from the HPV Project team Dan Jacobs, HPV Project Programme Manager Rachel Wood, HPV Project Business Change Lead
1.30pm	HPV Primary screening: implications for histology laboratories Tanya Fulton, Lead Histoscience LabPLUS
2.00pm	New histologic classifications of cervical cancers Drs Diane Kenwright and Peter Bethwaite, Histopathologists, Wellington SCL
2.30pm	Afternoon tea
3.00pm	Where is cervical cancer prevention heading? An international perspective. Dr Megan Smith
3.30pm	Screening for cervical cancer prevention: Crossroads for New Zealand Sandra Corbett, Member NCSP Advisory and Action Group
4.00pm	Close